33rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

INTRODUCTION:

If you have a really good friend, you will be anxious to ensure that your friendship lasts forever. If you truly love your wife or husband, you would want your bond of love to last forever. Some of these thoughts come into our minds in these last few Sundays of the church year. When we look to the future we think about the end of the world and we read about frightening events. This is the time, to which we, as Christians look forward with anxiety, saying: if only our friendship with Christ will last... never mind what else happens. If only our union with Christ lasts forever

GOSPEL: MARK 13: 24 - 32

Jesus said to his disciples: "In those days after that tribulation the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. "And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky. "Learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near. In the same way, when you see these things happening, know that he is near, at the gates. Amen, I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. "But of that day or hour, no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.
