FIFTEENTH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR CYCLE C

INTRODUCTION:

Not one of us lives entirely alone. We live in community with others, and we meet people wherever we go. Some of those whom we meet are in need, and we ask ourselves whether we should go out of our way to help them or just pass them by. Jesus shows us what we should do as he gave us the answer in the parable of the traveler from the foreign country of Samaria, who showed mercy although he was a stranger.

GOSPEL - LUKE 10: 25 - 37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?" He said in reply, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." He replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live." But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?" Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. Likewise a Levite came to the place, and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight. He approached the victim, poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them. Then he lifted him up on his own animal, took him to an inn, and cared for him. The next day he took out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction, 'Take care of him. If you spend more than what I have given you, I shall repay you on my way back.' Which of these three, in your opinion, was neighbor to the robbers' victim?" He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy." Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION

This collection represents an offering whose value is not practical but highly symbolic. The size of the offering is not important, no matter how small, it has a great meaning. It represents a sign of communion with the Pope. For this reason, Peter's Pence is also the manifestation of a sense of belonging to the church and of love for her visible head. A second collection will be held during the month of July.
