11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME. YEAR A

INTRODUCTION:

It is good to ask ourselves the following questions: why did we come to church? Why are we Christians? There may be many reasons. Perhaps our parents brought us to church, we feel happy when we are church or we want help from God. However, the fundamental reason that we are here today is that God has chosen us. He has called us to come to his altar. Jesus called his twelve Apostles in a special way, but he has chosen and called each one of us as well. He has chosen us to be his beloved people; a kingdom of priests.

GOSPEL: MATTHEW 9: 36 -10:8

At the sight of the crowds, Jesus' heart was moved with pity for them because they were troubled and abandoned, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few; so ask the master of the harvest to send out laborers for his harvest." Then he summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits to drive them out and to cure every disease and every illness. The names of the twelve apostles are these: first, Simon called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew, Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James, the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus; Simon from Cana, and Judas Iscariot who betrayed him. Jesus sent out these twelve after instructing them thus, "Do not go into pagan territory or enter a Samaritan town. Go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse lepers, drive out demons. Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give."
