Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

-Matthew 18:20

23rd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR A

INTRODUCTION:

Where people live together, we find trouble and misunderstanding. This can happen even between good friends. We Christians are not better than other people. We have the same problems. However, as Christians we should be a sign to the world. We should show the world that we can solve our difficulties in a new way. This is the message of our celebration today: as Christians, we are called to solve our problems in the spirit of Christ and in loving fellowship.

GOSPEL: Mathew 18: 15 - 20

Jesus said to his disciples: "If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother. If he does not listen, take one or two others along with you, so that "every fact may be established on the testimony of two or three witnesses". If he refuses to listen to them, tell the church. If he refuses to listen even to the church, then treat him as you would a Gentile or a tax collector. Amen, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again, amen, I say to you, if two of you agree on earth about anything for which they are to pray, it shall be granted to them by my heavenly Father. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them."
