28th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

INTRODUCTION:

There are many people who cannot understand why priests, or other Christian men and women do not get married. The answer is not easy. We need God's wisdom to understand it because it is a matter of love. Even now, there are men and women who experience Christ's love in a special way. They meet in the same way that hear about in today's Gospel. Jesus looked steadily at the man and he said: "go sell everything - then come and follow me

GOSPEL: MK 10: 17 - 30

As Jesus was setting out on a journey, a man ran up, knelt down before him, and asked him, "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus answered him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You shall not kill; you shall not commit adultery; you shall not steal; you shall not bear false witness; thou shall not defraud; honour your father and your mother." He replied and said to him, "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Jesus, looking at him, loved him and said to him, "You are lacking in one thing. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me. "At that statement his face fell, and he went away sad, for he had many possessions. Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!" The disciples were amazed at his words. So Jesus again said to them in reply, "Children, how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God." They were exceedingly astonished and said among themselves, "Then who can be saved?" Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God."
